We Dedicate Our Yearbook to Mom and Dad, With Love

Thank You . . .

I want to thank you, Mom and Dad, because a long time ago, you gave me the most precious gift I'll ever receive — my life. It's a gift I can share with others, a gift that grows in value over time.

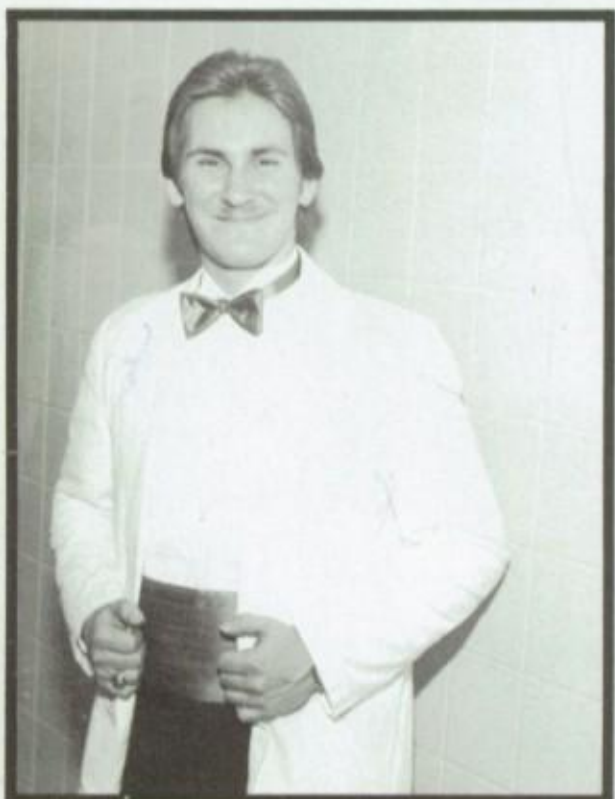

Thank you for always understanding that growing up is never easy. For patience, encouragement, support, and sacrifice . . . all the intangible, priceless investments you've made in me.

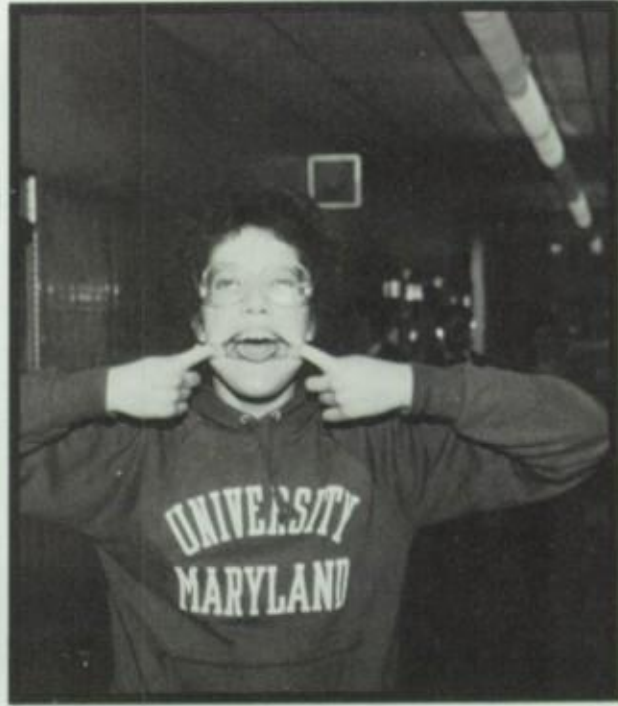

Thank you for enabling me to receive all the love showered upon me, not only today, but every day; for enabling me to experience all that life has to offer . . . your love, my time, life's beauty.

You have given me the most promising, useful gift, the gift I celebrate today and every day. Mom and Dad . . . thank you for me.

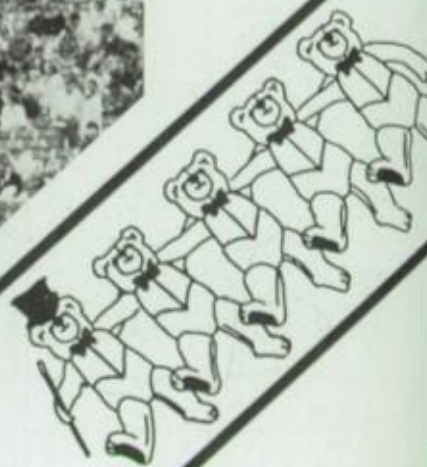

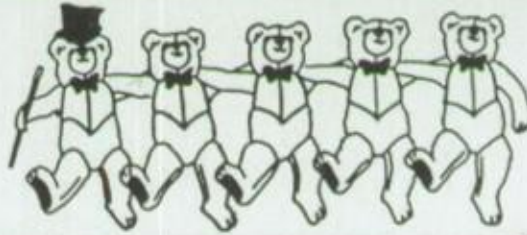

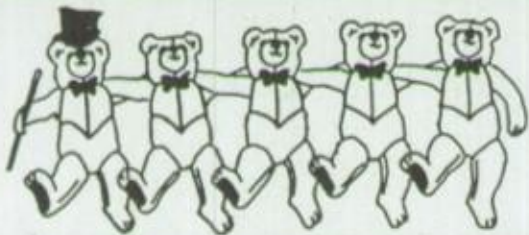

If you find a dream inside your heart, don't ever let it go . . . for dreams can be the tiny seeds from which tomorrows grow.

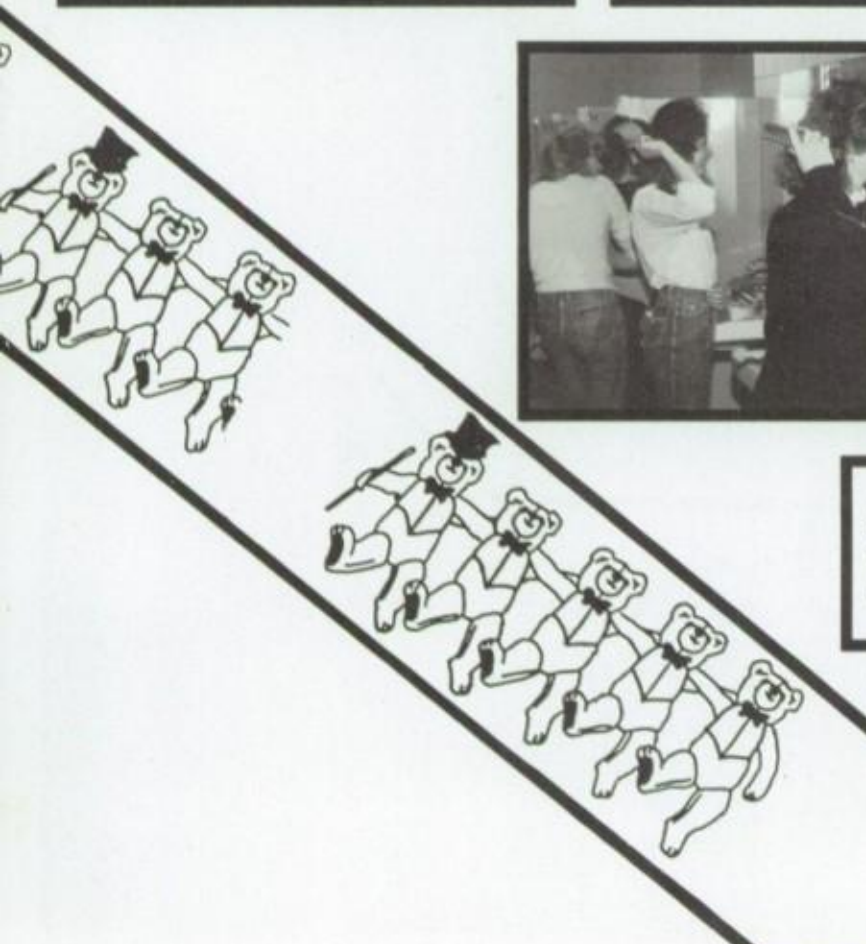

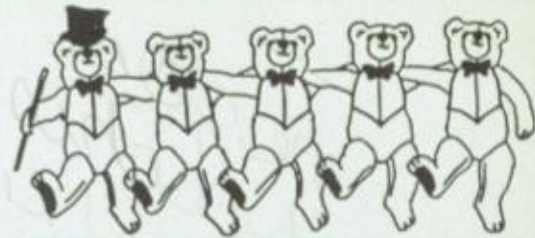

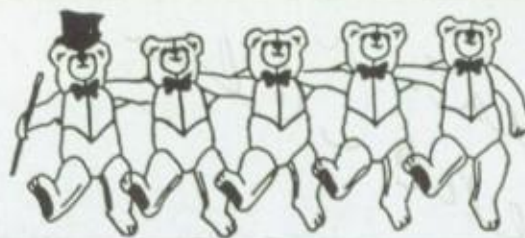

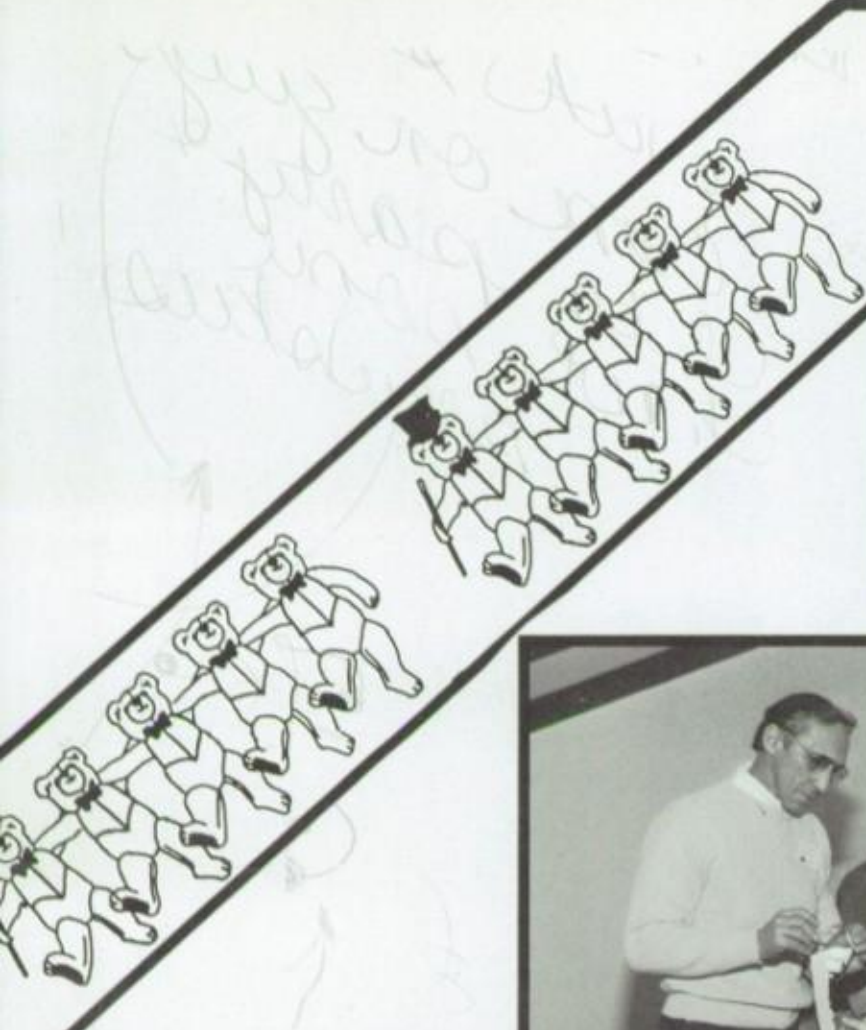

Graduation is a milestone in life. It is an ending and a beginning. It is a stepping stone from the past with its hours of study and its marvelous moments of fun to a new life filled with great challenges and responsibilities. We must say "farewell" to fellow students and faculty and look ahead to new friends and acquaintances in our chosen professions.

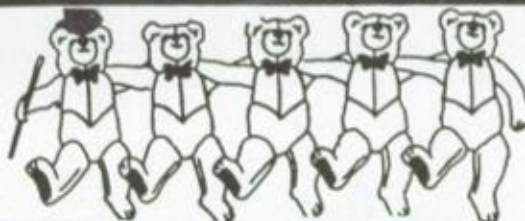

mae

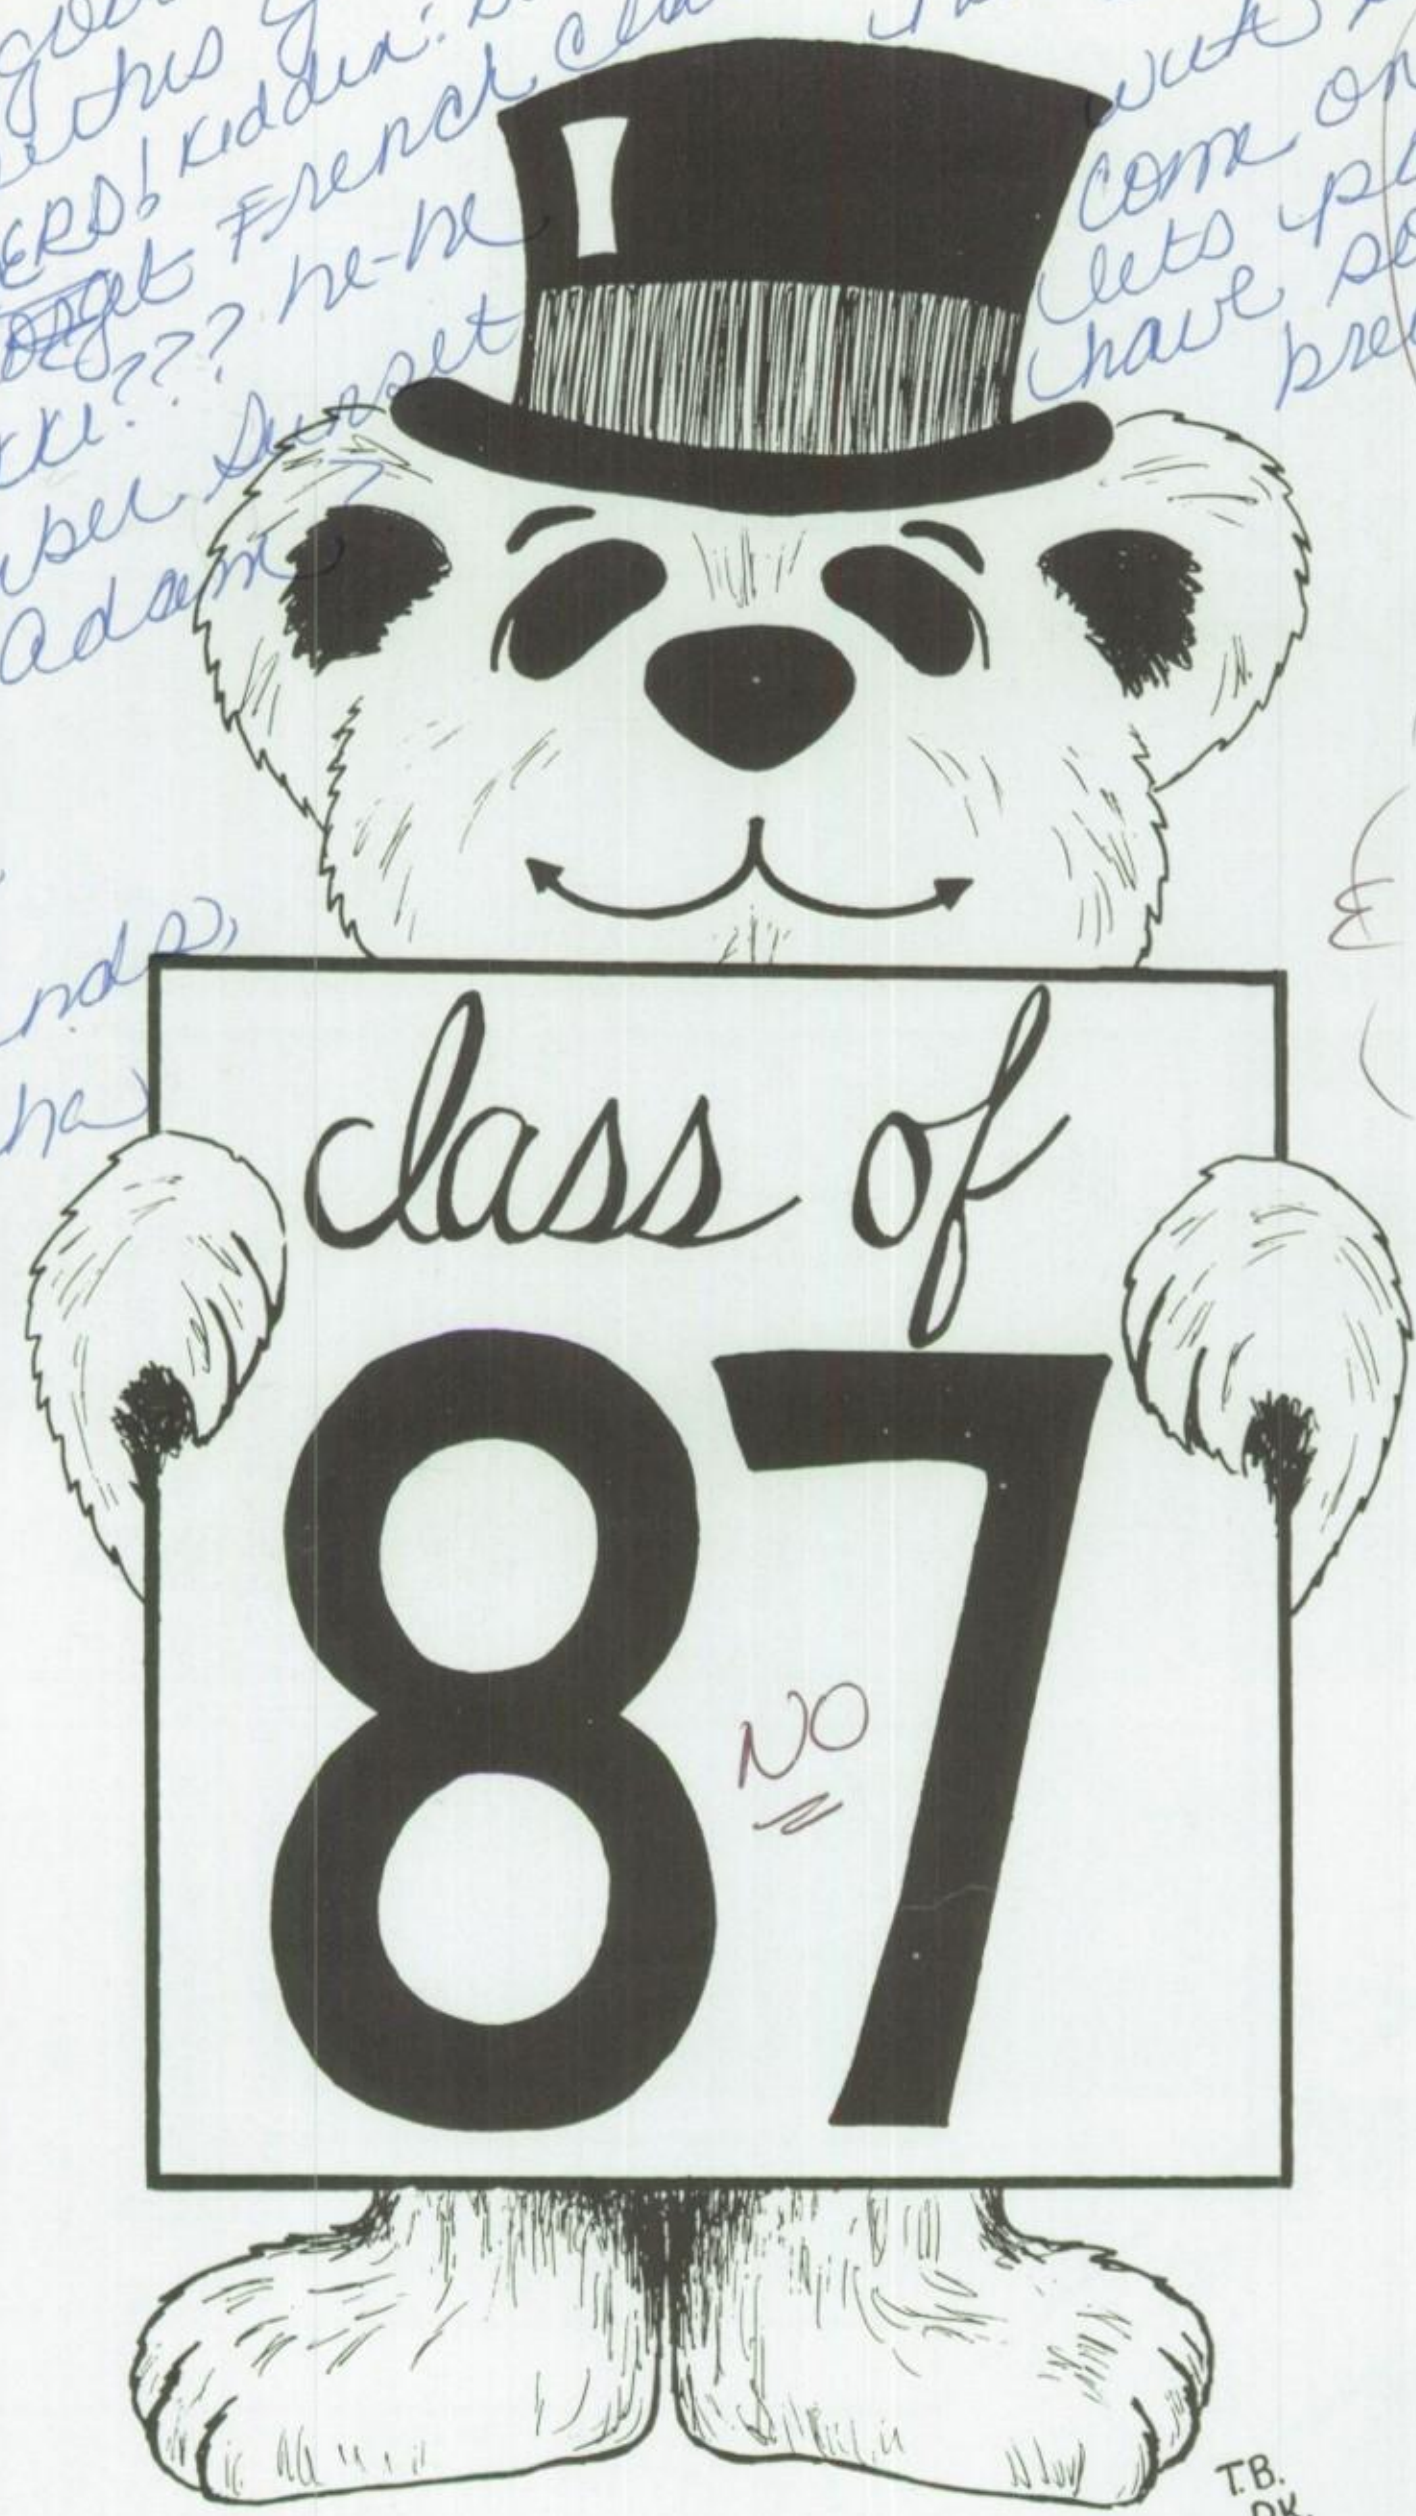

Don't be afraid to take the time to dream . . . to wonder and to find direction. Too much is lost when we live only to duplicate. Be yourself!

Get, glad we became good friends this year.

School Days & Pondering Nights

*Pondering thoughts, dreaming dreams
Going out, devising schemes
Planning parties, taking tests
Always remember, never forget*

*School days and teenage nights
Getting cars and motorbikes
Watching TV drive-in shows
Where has the time gone?
No one knows*

*Chasing boys and running wild
Your mom still treats you like a child
Home by ten asleep by eleven
Up in the morning for school at seven*

*Graduation comes at last
We reminisce about the past
Our high school days have been the best

In the year 2001 we will embark on a journey around the world to visit old classmates. As we board the plane from Buffalo we see KIM OKONCZAK; our friendly stewardess who shows us to our seats. On departure we hear the voice of our pilot SCOTT PANFIL announcing our first stop in New York.

Visiting this busy city we see SHAWN BOLOGNESE picking pockets in Time Square. As we move on now to the bar scene we see JIM AVINO baring it all as a Chippendale. Having seen enough, we leave to catch a taxi. Outside we are entertained by CHRIS BEYER rapping to the Fat Boys. Before our stop at the Statue of Liberty we are stunned by the sight of CARL KOLASNY feeding the pigeons in Battery Park after a hard day on Wall Street on Liberty Island. We notice BRIAN SALA and his five children walking around with kazoos in their mouths.

We catch a late bus and move on to Ohio. On the drive there we encounter BECKIE LESNIAK yelling at a police officer. We decide to stop at Cedar Point Amusement Park, there we buy some cotton candy from DAWN ROZAK'S candy stand. On the beach we see a beautiful bathing beauty relaxing after a fashion modeling session. It's ELENI SERKIZIS! Still munching our candy, we stumble upon a fortune teller's tent and notice SANDY KRAMER sitting behind the crystal ball. Hearing enough, we walk the grounds looking for more adventure. We hear a bright hello from another sightseer, DARREN JUSZKIEWICZ. Tailing right behind is TRACY BRUNNER. Next we catch a ride in a hot air balloon for fun. LISA TRICOLLI our pilot, takes us up. Not realizing that the ropes are undone, a gust of wind sends us too high and too far. Traveling for days, we finally land in Florida.

After that tiring journey, we decide to relax on the coastal beaches. Watching the surfers, we unexpectedly see SCOTT NOGA wash up on the shore. As we listen to the radio we scan the channels stopping when we hear CAROLYN SAFE announcing the weather conditions for Joy 96.5. Turning off the radio, we hurry to catch a tourist bus to Disney Land. There, we have our picture taken with Mickey Mouse, and are surprised to hear DEANNA DRZEWIECKI'S voice from underneath the costume. As she shows us the park we stop to buy turquoise jewelry from DENISE HELINSKI'S own shop. Returning to the hotel room we decide to watch Karate Kid Part III starring DAVID LAGODZINSKI. In the morning, we are notified that our next stop is Chicago. We hitch a ride with JOHN WACH in his pink Cadillac.

In Chicago, we decide to take the subway. Getting aboard we run into SCOTT PASINKI flashing his smile at an old lady. A magazine on the subway catches our attention. We see DEBBIE BRANIECKI on the front page of Sports Illustrated. Paging through the magazine, we find an article saying that KELLY STABLEWSKI was offered a contract to play for the Boston Celtics. Finally, as we go to the biggest corporation in the city we are greeted by the company's president, ANN POLASZEWSKI, who shows us around the operation. DONNA JASKOWIAK, the company's top secretary, leaves us in the lounge and goes back to her work. On television, TINA MAZURKIEWICZ is co-hosting the Richard Simmon's show. As we leave, we are almost run down by SANDY CZYRNY who is still a hazard on the road. As we read the local newspaper we are astonished by the headline "City's Best Lawyer," JENNIFER RYBAK Defends The Accused Murderer; MARVIN DROZDOWSKI. Flipping further through the pages we come across an article picturing BRIAN MIELCAREK "Wanted Dead or Alive." Catching another airplane out of the city, we met Lieutenant WENDY BLUMAN returning to Lackland Air Force Base in Texas. In Texas, we go visit MARGARET BANAVITO on her cattle ranch. Her favorite cowboy, TOM KAPTUROWSKI takes us to a rodeo. (Yippi, Yippi, Yai, Yippi, Yai, Yai, Yo!) TOSIA SZCZESNY wins first prize as a bronco rider and walks off with a sore behind. Searching for more excitement, we wander off to the prairies and are attacked by JEFF KOSCIELNY'S flock of sheep. We also encounter BRIAN WESOLOWSKI going nowhere!

Visiting South Fort Ranch we meet DENISE MOSS, the maid of the Ewing Estate, where JOEL FININZIO smoked out the kitchen as he cooks dinner. TAMMY BIELAWA comes down the staircase, hysterical because her new home is being ruined (we knew she'd marry a wealthy man).

PAUL BYKOWICZ smuggles us (into Mexico). We watch him get arrested then leave to sightsee. DAVID CZEKAJ partying until the street lights go out is noticed as we walk through the streets of Tiajuana. Later, we run into our future Cheech and Chong; DOUG PIESZALA and AL ROY. By their sides are their wives; ANNMARIE CYRANKOWSKI and CINDY HEJNA. Crossing across the border we headed for California.

As we climb to the top of a mountain, we are warned to be careful by the area's Avalanche Patrol Officer, PAUL DIBLASIO. His brother, PETER DIBLASIO has a career he always wanted, a centerfold photographer for Playgirl Magazine. He took us out for a drink and we passed a billboard with CHERYL TRZASKA advertising against cigarettes. Stopping at a bar of Pete's choice, we were entertained by the establishment's own comedian, CHERYL WIDELSKI. After the show we check out LIZ WAGNER'S multi-million dollar brewery. She asks us to visit Hollywood. As we go through the studios, we see Mrs. Robert Redford, - ANNETTE WHEELER, and Mrs. Pee Wee Herman, - DAWN WEGRZYN arguing over a part. Continuing our tour, MIKE GULCZEWSKI is doing a Messy Marvin commercial. In the studio next door, JENNIFER GLINSKI is guest star on the Muppet Show. Designing the muppet's hair styles is SHARI KRAJEWSKI. Our last attraction is JANIE SUMMERS making her own video. Leaving Hollywood, we sneak on a train to find more friends. Caught by JIM RIVERA, we are thrown off in Nome, Alaska. Wandering aimlessly, we find SHARON RAAB looking for adventure. JOHN WARNES welcomes us into his igloo, to meet his wife, ANNETTE NOWICKI and their family. We take a free skiing lesson from STEVE WASS and come across JEFF KLYCZEK polar bear hunting with his whips and chains. Hearing that a blizzard is on the way, we go to JOELEEN NOWACZEWSKI'S telephone company to make reservations for a plane to another destination. Arriving in the U.S.S.R., President JIM SPINELLA invites us to visit his country. Hearing gunshots, we see ANN MOSKAL, the wife of a Pink Floyd member, being chased by TINA PA-

Prophecy

JAK, a bounty hunter. Later in the evening, Chief of Police, MIKE SZAFRANSKI, is looking for witnesses. He questions KIM TATKO, a homebody, about the shooting. She slams the door. We continue on to Moscow where CHRIS KOEHLER, owner of Tops Friendly Markets gives us free tickets to see DARLENE EARSING in a ballet.

Leaving Moscow we arrive in Seoul, Korea to find LANCE MAHALIC, the new Rambo fighting for our country. He captures JOE DICANDALARO, who has a job as physical development director for the South Korean Army. After that battle, NAOMI ZIMMERMAN, a nurse attends to the injured. JOHN MACKOWIAK, who is a sgt. in the Marines sends for JOHN SOJKA, the world's Heavy Weight Champion, in case they need anymore help. Upon leaving Korea, we take a cruise to Australia on the "Love Boat." JUDY SCHWAB, a travel agent, sells us the tickets. As we board the ship, SUSAN RABB, our cruise director, shows us to our cabin. While unpacking, we watch the David Letterman show co-hosted by (to our surprise) DANIELLE SYMACK. The power on the ship fails. After the power failure we call upon trustworthy BILL GREENTANER to do repairs. We leave the cabin to enjoy some sun by the pool and find DOUG KEN-JOCKETY playing lifeguard with his sidekick CARLA HAVERS. We look overboard and to our surprise see TRISH CICCARELLI swimming across the Pacific Ocean. We decide to go to the tennis courts to watch JENNIFER KEANE playing against McEnroe. At the half way point of the cruise, the ship stops at an island which is jointly owned by PAM PIATEK and SHARON WAWRZONKEK. Walking on the island by the water, we stumble upon a nudist beach, and to our amusement we find MICHELLE NOWAKAWSKI sunning herself in the middle of it. Next our appetites take us to CHERYL MANGONE'S Burger King Restaurant. We go back to the ship and continue to Australia. There in Sidney we meet BECKY BIELAWA who owns two adorable koala bears. Attending one of them is Australia's best veterinarian, SANDY MOSKAL. We see RANDY TAYLOR washing windows at a church. We go inside to find Reverend CHRIS KUSZ performing a ceremony. KELLY GELSOMINO, a nun, takes us to the monastery where we visit Apostolic delegate WILLIAM PASTOR. After this religious experience, we fly to Egypt. BRIAN KRZYWICK, a camel jockey, takes us across the desert. On our way, we are greeted by DAVID KRZEMIEN and his harem of "20" wives. At his oasis, we rest for the night. In the morning, ROBIN OWSIAN, the first to join the harem, feeds us breakfast. We then head on to King Tut's Tomb, where DENISE NALEZYNSKI searches for the hidden secrets of the pyramid.

We continue on through Africa, where PAULA KONCZAL lives with the Pygmy Tribes. Here in the heart of Africa, we find JOYCE RUNO teaching the natives how to play quarters. MIKE WESOLOWSKI is starting his own girls' football team, and BRIAN KOSTELNY warms the bench as they play. Watching the proceedings, TOM PILARSKI, a Pro-football player suggests a new form of tackling. EDIE GLINSKI the tribe's witchdoctor sells a love potion to JACK WADDELL, a visiting fireman, and HOLLY WLODARCZYK steals the potion for her own use.

We jump on an airplane to Poland. Until we are spoken to by MARY J. GIBBONS, we don't realize the plane is filled with psychotics. DENNIS BRANIECKI thinks he is a member of the Looney Tunes Cartoon Program. Also on board is CYNDI LARIVIERE, MARK MALECKI'S psychologist. After landing and debarking we meet an excited RAY KLEIN, who is spreading a wild new array of hair styles. On the streets we find JAMIE SLISZ and NANCY ZAMROK, partners in the Polish Mafia, who chase us out of town. We fled to Germany.

Hearing noise and music we see a circus ahead. Bouncing all around is ROBIN REYNOLDS, the clown, by her side is MIKE MARKIEWICZ playing a Gumbi look-alike. Inside one of the tents MELISSA WILSON is busy making money as a tattoo artist. In the next tent, before our very eyes MARTY AUGUSTYNIAK grows three feet taller and shrinks again. We head into the tent of Guinness World Records, there DAN EDMONSON is the tallest man on earth. We enter the Big Top just in time to see the aerial act in which JENNIFER GALEZA performs as one of the flyers on the trapeze. Here come the elephants. Look! There's DARREN ZIEMBA staggering behind carrying a shovel and bucket. As we leave the tent, JOE UNTEREGGER (covered in grease) pushes himself out from underneath a truck.

Next, we travel to France where we find STEPHANIE BALDWIN working as a model in Paris. Not too far away JULIE GASIOROWSKI is fashioning a pair of CocoChanel jeans. MICHELLE SOKOLOWSKI has taken the city by storm as the most successful business woman in the world. Wandering around Paris we are very surprised to see RODNEY TODARO on leave from the Air Force taking pictures of the Eiffel Tower. In our hotel room that evening we watch a live telecast of the Miss Universe Pageant. Our own SANDY BIERZYNSKI is crowned Miss Universe. TONY IMIOLA, a lighting technician, is making advances towards the first runner-up. He is disappointed when his strobe light blows.

Finally, we decide to head back to Buffalo. Our plane is hijacked by ROB WISE and WAYNE SISK and forced to land in Ontario. Finally, we are in the Hyatt Hotel and are awakened by noises — a mouse. We call the Golovin Exterminating Company to get rid of the rodent. STEVE GOLOVIN shows up with a mousetrap in his hand. We are forced to report him to the Hotel manager, TAMMY KNAPIK, who kicked him out of the building. In the morning when we left, our bellboy, WALTER KLEIN, carries our luggage to the car. As we walk through the airport we are stunned to learn that KAREN ZIEMBA is the latest lottery winner. We are really surprised to hear a familiar voice surrounded by a crowd. There in the center is JOHN ZELASKO auctioning balloons to the arriving and departing passengers. As we watch, MISS HARTKE taps us on the shoulders. She flew in on her broomstick to remind us, LISA LENKOWSKI and KIKI VASILADIS, that time is money and we're wasting both, our story is long overdue. Luckily our plane is waiting and we are off to Buffalo.

A Bientot! See You soon, Gutentag, Adios!

SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. James Mazgajewski

"Knowledge is of two kinds: We know a subject ourselves, or we know where we can find information upon it." This is a quote from Samuel Johnson an 18th century English scholar and critic. In a few words it summarizes one of the very important reasons for your participation in the activities that are featured in this and all yearbooks. That reason of course is to give you the ability to utilize knowledge to its best advantage for both yourself, your community and your country. We are confident that your experiences at John F. Kennedy have taught you this lesson well.

Best Wishes to the Class of 1987.

*James P. Mazgajewski
Superintendent of Schools*

SENIOR HIGH PRINCIPAL

MR. HENRY ZWIERZCHOWSKI

Each group that passes through the corridors at John F. Kennedy High School develops its own unique personality in the six years that is its sojourn here. So, too, has the class of '87 become a unique personality in the annals of John F. Kennedy. You are young and full of promise spiced with mischievousness, but you can be serious and determined. A wise man recognizes the foibles of youth and capitalizes on them. He takes this energy and puts it to use searching for new ideas, new methods, new products. He takes this curiosity and guides it to question what exists and ask what better way is there?

You are tomorrow!! The style and quality of life that you ordain shall be the style and quality of the future. To elevate the thoughts and goals of mankind, you have only to raise your own goals and thoughts. You have only to seek, to strive for greater horizons, for you are the measure of future society. You will set the pattern, the direction, the quality of tomorrow. Now is the time to set aside the "things" of childhood and to put on the "garments" of adulthood. If tomorrow's society is to be characterized by "class," then it is up to you to demonstrate this class and become the quality leaders of society.

JUNIOR HIGH PRINCIPAL

MR. DANIEL MAHONEY

Congratulations To The Graduating Class of 1987!

You have now earned and are entitled to the designation as High School Graduates.

Now, the time has come to further establish your identity, or make your mark through either continued preparations, or entering into the market place and the world of work.

Whatever your choice, you would be well advised to keep in mind a few thought provoking messages from scholarly and philosophical minds of the past.

"To know is not to know, unless someone else has known that I know. (Scire est nescire, nisi id me scire alius csierit.) Lucilius, Fragment.

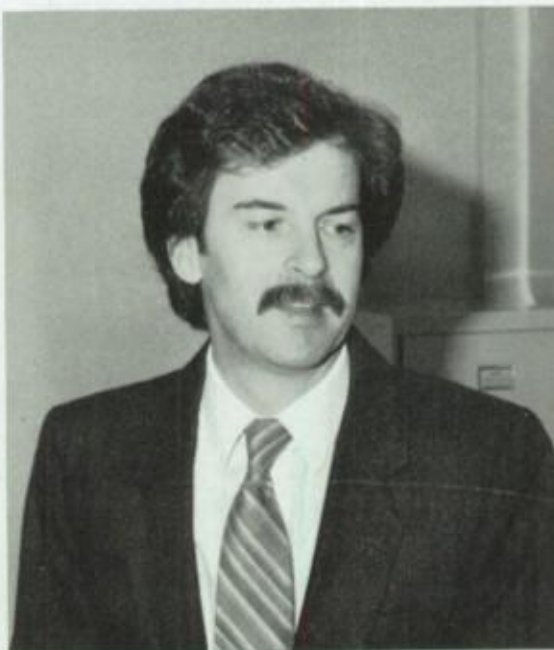

*To have a thing is nothing if you've not the chance to show it,
And to know a thing is nothing, unless others know you know it. Lord Nancy, Epigram.*

The time has come to really "show and tell."

In 1986, JFK brought to the stage the musical, "Fanny the Frivolous Flapper." It was a humorous detective story set in the roaring 20's.

Biff Bang, our star detective, was played by Bruce Stutz. He will go to any means to "get his man." Kelly Piotrowski brought humor, dance technique, and a touch of style to the title role of Fanny Fannington. Other lead roles were played by Jon Klaybor, Tosia Szczesny, Ken Ostempowski, Lisa Chrzanowski, Joe DiCandeloro, and Michelle Sikora.

Student Council is very much involved in serving the students and community by sponsoring projects such as: Spirit Week, the Homecoming dance, Camfel's Multi Cinema Show, Variety Club Telethon, "Say No to Drugs," Save a Heart, and gave two 3' tall chocolate Easter Rabbits to students in an Easter Egg guessing contest and also provided two Thanksgiving turkeys with all the trimmings for two needy families in the high school. The Student Council raises money from the vending machines, fundraisers, and operation of the concession stand at athletic events. A goal of the Council is to use some of their funds to take a trip to either New York City or Cedar Point.

"Where's Chilly?"

In the spring of 1986, a girl's J.V. soccer team was initiated at JFK. Twenty eight 8th to 10th grade girls practiced long and hard, hoping to add some experience to the future varsity teams. While no formal schedule existed, as many possible scrimmages were held. No games were won, but valuable experience and vast improvement made the effort worthwhile. In fact, near the end of the season, several girls moved up to varsity competition and helped considerably. We look forward to next year's season, primarily due to the return of many experienced players.

Future Stars.

Check out Kim's moves.
